That is What Judge Gary Says of Documents Now Desired by the Government.

[Associated Press Dispatch]
NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Judge Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation gave out a statement tonight in explanation of the charge made by the government that certain evidence used in prosecution of the so-called "Jackson wire pools" is needed to support the government's suit for dissolution, had been destroyed. He says the evidence is a trunk full of "old papers" that had been before the grand jury in New York and returned after indictments in the wire pool investigation had been disposed of and were ordered destroyed by Frank Bancroft, vice president of the American Steel and Wire company who supposed all prosecutions growing out of wire pools were at an end and that the papers were no longer needed for any purpose.

specie was on the train destined for say but one pouch of mail is missing.

An all day search for the robbers was

EXPANSION OF HIGH SCHOOL

Twenty-five New Freshmen Admitted; Work on the School Annual Begins;
Outdoor Gym the Latest Novelty

Keeping close time with the phenomenal growth of the city the enrollment of the high school is increasing by leaps and bounds. A new class of some twenty-five freshmen has just been admitted from the Central school and the total enrollment of the high school is now over four hundred and fifty. The old building is more crowded than ever but the contractors are now at work on the inside finishing of the domestic science building which will soon be ready for occupancy.

The school is fairly bubbling over with activity in a dozen different lines.
The high school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Curtis furnishes music for the school assemblies and for various dramatic and social entertainments. The senior class has elected the members of the staff for the school annual and these officers are already hard at work. The members of the staff are: Loretta Hills, editor in chief; John McCoy and Joan Craig-ford, business managers; Alice Aver-dall, literary editor; Blanche Lumbek, art editor; Wilson Giesinger and Jack Thomson, humorous editors; Bernice Smith, alumni editor; Louise Renard, social editor; Marjorie Jesuofsky, class historian; Ruth Burns, class poet; Lillian Runtion, class prophet; and Joe O'Connell, athletic editor. The contract for the printing of the annual has already been let to The Republican.

Besides all this literary and musical activity, something altogether unique in the way of an athletic contest is being planned. An outdoor gymnasium is being constructed on the athletic field but the equipment is yet by no means complete.

When all the apparatus is in place and the boys have had sufficient practice, it is planned to hold a lot of circus stunt races against time. The evolutions which the contestants will go through are about as follows:—they will turn in the rings, climb the climbing rope, climb the first climbing pole and go over the top of it, turn on the trapeze, climb a second pole in the same manner as the first climb the high bar and turn on the low bar. The contestants who finishes in shortest time will doubtless get a circus engagement. It is reasonable to suppose that by time the asperite aerobics has finished this series of evolutions it will have earned an prize that may be offered.

Although Prof. Stauffer recognized the importance of these outside interests he never allows them to interfere with the real business of the school. To keep pace with the growing enrollment the courses are constantly being broadened and the faculty increased. The last member added to the faculty is Miss Brannon who will teach public speaking and will also have charge of all the plays and entertainments given by the school.
Miss Brannon is a graduate of Columbia University, and, previous to her coming to Phoenix, was a teacher in the Wadsworth high school of New York, the largest high school in the metropolis. Miss Brannon is sure to become one of the most popular teachers in the school.

HUNT INSISTS ON SIMPLICITY

Wants the Least Possible Ceremony at the Capitol; Arrangements Progressing for the Admission Day Festivities

Eugene Brady O'Neill yesterday received a reply from Governor Elect Hunt, respecting the tentative program for inauguration day ceremonies, which Mr. O'Neill as chairman of the citizens committee had submitted for his approval.

Mr. Hunt stated that he hoped the simplicity so suggested and that had been outlined to Col. McClintock, would be observed. He said he did not care to have any flag raising or firing of guns at the capitol, nor did he wish that the crowd be restrained by militia. He said it was his plan to arrive here Sunday night and on Monday as the noon hour approached he would stand his way on foot to the capitol and there take the oath. If the people came to enter the building then and meet him he would be agreeable to the arrangement. The governor said nothing about an inaugural address but it is presumed he will deliver one.

It is therefore quite likely that the committee on arrangements will confine its activities chiefly to the admission day festivities and that the salute of 48 guns will be fired at 2 o'clock in the afternoon from some fitting place up town. It is the desire of the committee to follow the governor's wishes so far as possible, in connection with the inaugural, but the committee plans to have a big admission celebration anyhow. A part of this will be a reception to be given in the hotel Adams on the evening in honor of the governor and the state officers. Though that has been added to the program since it was originally sent to Governor Hunt, it is believed he will sur-rely consent to lend himself to that much festivity on so notable an occasion.

The following communication has Our leading merchants insist on their right to the use of the sidewalk in front of their place of business, rightly so, I think, as they have to Let the people use the streets.

FIRE WASTE AND FIRE PROFITS.

What fire burns is wasted. In 1911 fire destroyed over three hundred million dollars. The Arizona Fire Insurance Company helped to pay this loss. Nevertheless it only paid out eleven dollars for every one hundred dollars received in Arizona.
This company evidently is going to make a great mark in insurance underwriting, and property owners are safe in taking its policies.

Ask him if he does not think too much of you to let you wear your washing by itself. Hitch the Marvel

SHADE IN SUMMER

In such a sunny country as this great southwest, the shading of the rooms in a home is a serious problem. If you want your home comfortable during the summer months, be sure you have a good grade of shades at your windows. The Barrows Fashions Furniture Co., 325 W.
Wash., makes a specialty of shades and its prices are much cheaper than some of the other concerns of the city.

WHERE ARE THE FAMILY SPOONS?

mer even if you do have to pay a few dollars for the privilege, and stop worrying over the family spoons.
